

On November 30, 2009, NATO Liaison Officer for South Caucasus, Zbigniew Rybacki visited Sokhumi State University. During the conversation with Professor Indira Dzagania at the Department of International Relations, Zbigniew Rybacki suggested to establish “NATO corner” at the University, which will function under the patronage of NATO representatives.

NATO representatives in Georgia will constantly be supplying the University with audio-video material for better informing students and academic personnel with NATO activities throughout the world and Georgia particularly.

The Rector of Sokhumi State University, Professor Joni Apakidze welcomed the guest. At the meeting approximate date (January) of opening the NATO corner was appointed. At the opening Prof. Joni Apakidze will deliver the lecture: “Partnership for Peace”.
