

On March 3, 2009, the well-known opera singer and the founder of “Iavnana” International Foundation Paata Burchuladze visited Sokhumi State University. He met students and academic personnel of the University. “Iavnana” was founded on 2004 and since then has organized numerous charitable actions and concerts.

On March 3, 2009 “Iavnana” foundation celebrated its five years’ jubilee by the Grand Gala Concert in Opera and Ballet Theatre. In the concert took part well-known Georgian artists and famous American soprano Michelle Crider. By the invitation of Paata Burchuladze students and academic personnel attended the concert. During the charitable concert, “Iavnana” Foundation had granted 10 personal computers and masterpiece of Georgian Literature - “Vepkhistaosani” to the students of the various universities. One of the presents went to the student of the Sokhumi State University David Kometiani.

The amount, collected will be fully spent for the support of the children deprived of parental care. During the concert, three large families were granted apartments.