

Ambassador Per Eklund, Head of the European Union Delegation to Georgia, visited Sokhumi State University

On July 7, 2010 the Ambassador Per Eklund, Head of the European Union Delegation to Georgia, visited Sokhumi State University. He delivered the lecture on European support to Georgia. After the lecture the discussion was held. Later Ambassador Per Eklund met with the Rector of the University Professor Joni Apakidze.

Sokhumi State University actively participates in the different programs of the European Union.