

Students, academic personnel and administration of Sokhumi State University convey their sympathy and deep condolences to the Polish people at the tragic death of the president of Poland, Lech Kaczyński, his spouse and representatives of the Polish official delegation.

Personnel of Sokhumi State University was especially saddened with the grave loss of friendly Poland, taking in account the warm and constructive relations, established between the University and Polish embassy, university societies and scientific spheres.

The Rector, Professor Joni Apakidze and representatives of Sokhumi State University expressed their deep sorrow in the Book of Condolence, opened in the Palace of Youth.