

Visit of Ambassador of Bulgaria to Sokhumi State University

On July 13, 2009 Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Bulgaria, Branimir Radev visited Sokhumi State University.

During the visit issues of future cooperation among Sokhumi State University and Universities of Bulgaria have been discussed. For the academic year of 2010 Sokhumi State University is planning to establish the Institute of Slavic Studies for teaching the Slavic languages: Bulgarian, Polish and Ukrainian. Besides, international scientific conferences together with the Bulgarian colleagues will be held as well.
