

On January 1, 2010, Alexander Von Humboldt Foundation nominated the Rector of Sokhumi State University, Professor Joni Apakidze as an Ambassador Scientist

On January 1, 2010, Alexander Von Humboldt Foundation nominated the Rector of Sokhumi State University, Professor Joni Apakidze as an Ambassador Scientist. Joni Apakidze has already received the official information from the Humboldt Foundation.

Generally Ambassador Scientist is elected the Humboldt Foundation fellow who contributes significantly to development of international scientific network. In the process of decision-making advices and conclusions, made by Ambassador Scientists have always been envisaged by the Humboldt Foundation.

For the beginning of 2010, the Humboldt Foundation has elected in all 45 Ambassador Scientists from 34 states.