

On July 18, 2009 administration and academic personnel of Sokhumi State University completed 2008-2009 academic year with the informative excursion to one of the oldest towns of Kakheti – Signagi, its fortresses, ancient monuments and the museum. Guests from the Sokhumi State University visited as well Bodbe Saint Nino Monastery and the sacred fount. The excursion was full of emotions: everybody felt connection with the glorious past and hope that our fatherland will become strong and prosperous again.
