

On 22.12.09 the coach of the Georgian National Football Team, Temur Ketsbaia visited Sokhumi State University. During his meeting with the students and the academic personnel the guest talked about development of Georgian football and the future plans.