

On February 19, 2010 the jubilee actions dedicated to the birthday of famous Abkhazian writer, scientist and the public figure, Dimitri Gulia were held. Event was organized by the Center of Spirituality and Culture of Abkhazia and the Department of Intercultural Communications of Sokhumi State University.

The Rector of Sokhumi State University, Professor Joni Apakidze talked about Dimitri Gulia - founder of Abkhazian literature and many-sided personality, who represented the connecting link between the Georgian and Abkhazian peoples.

About the life and work of Dimitri Gulia talked the Head of the Center of Spirituality and Culture of Abkhazia Svetlana Ketsba; Professors: Teimuraz Gvantseladze, Otar Zhordania, Zurab Papasqiri, Lorik Marshania, poets Rene and Geno Kalandia.

Artists of Shota Rustaveli Theatre Ia Sukhitashvili and Levan Khurtsia read verses of the great Abkhazian poet and writer. Abkhazian State Song and Dance Group (Creative Director - Guram Kurashvili, Conductor - David Okujava) performed Georgian and Abkhazian National songs and dances.

The meeting was conducted by the Head of Intercultural Department of Sokhumi State University, Professor Indira Dzaganian.