

On April 23, the Minister of Education and Culture of Autonomous Republic of Abkhazia -Dali Khomeriki presented the project - “Support Program for Abkhazian Scientists” to the students and academic personnel of Sokhumi State University. The Rector of Sokhumi State University, Professor Joni Apakidze talked about importance of the Project for scientists of the University, who in case of receiving co-financing will have the opportunity to get support from the Project.