

On November 5, 2009, for the first time in the history of the University, defense of the dissertation by Lela Mirtskhulava in the field of Georgian Literature - “Postmodernist Tends in the Modern Georgian Literature” - was held. Professor Joni Apakidze presided over the dissertation board. The defense went off successfully in an interesting and constructive atmosphere.