

On January 5, the newly elected Academic Council of the Sokhumi State University held its first meeting. The Acting Rector of the University Professor Joni Apakidze greeted the meeting and Metropolitan of Tskhum-Abkhazia Daniel blessed the meeting and its participants.

“Sokhumi State University is the heart of Abkhazian Society. It is the symbol of survivability and peace. It is always in the center of significant events and plays important part in the struggle for territorial integrity of Georgia. Therefore, responsibility of the University governance is most important.

Metropolitan of Tskhum-Abkhazia Daniel passed the Christmas Epistolary of the Patriarch of Georgia Ilia II to each member of Academic Council of the Sokhumi State University.
