

The Scientific Session “Problems of Georgian and Abkhazian Linguistic Studies”, dedicated to the memory of noted scientist and researcher in the field of Georgian and Abkhazian studies, Academician Ketevan Lomtadze, will be held on February 23-24 by the Institutes of Georgian and Abkhazian languages of Sokhumi State University

The Session will begin at 11 o'clock at the Presentation Hall of Sokhumi State University (9, Jikia Str., Building I). Professors, invited from the different accredited educational institutions, will take part in the event.